

Read the Tee-Dee
Want Ads.
They Will Save
Money for You.

The Times

Dispatch

The Tee-Dee Want
Ad. Page is the Family Business
Directory.

RICHMOND, VA., SUNDAY, JANUARY 3, 1904.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S NEWS

The Weather.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Forecast for Sunday and Monday: much cold Sunday; Monday fair and cold; brisk north-west wind.
North Carolina—Clearing and much cold Sunday; cold wave Monday fair; cold; brisk to high northwest winds.

Yesterday was a day of two seasons. The temperature early in the afternoon was mild; at midnight the wind in the tube was below freezing.

STATE OF THE THERMOMETER.
12 M.	49
3 P. M.	59
6 P. M.	41
12 M.	39
Average	41.6

Highest temperature yesterday	59
Lowest temperature yesterday	39
Mean temperature yesterday	52
Normal temperature for January	52
Normal temperature for month	52
Precipitation during past 24 hours	.01

MINIATURE ALMANAC.
Jan. 2, 1904.
Sun rises.....7:27	HIGH TIDE.....1:33
Moon rises.....5:57	Evening.....4:52
Jan. 3, 1904.
Sun rises.....7:27	HIGH TIDE.....1:33
Moon rises.....5:57	Evening.....4:52

Richmond.

Former Treasurer Brauer, of Henrico, has been elected to the position of Treasurer of the County of Henrico. The election was held at the County Court house, and Brauer was elected by a large majority. The election was held on Saturday, Jan. 2, and the results were announced on Sunday. Brauer is a well-known citizen of Henrico, and has been in the public service for many years. He is a member of the Henrico Board of Supervisors, and has been elected to the position of Treasurer for the next year. The election was held in accordance with the provisions of the Henrico Code, and the results were announced by the County Clerk. Brauer is a native of Henrico, and has been a resident of the County for many years. He is a member of the Henrico Board of Supervisors, and has been elected to the position of Treasurer for the next year. The election was held on Saturday, Jan. 2, and the results were announced on Sunday. Brauer is a well-known citizen of Henrico, and has been in the public service for many years. He is a member of the Henrico Board of Supervisors, and has been elected to the position of Treasurer for the next year.

Virginia.

The Commonwealth's attorney of Norfolk will bring the prize fight promoter before a grand jury on Monday. The promoter is charged with promoting a prize fight between a Negro and a white man. The fight is to take place in Norfolk on Monday night. The Commonwealth's attorney is bringing the promoter before the grand jury to determine if there is sufficient evidence to charge the promoter with promoting a prize fight. The fight is being promoted by a man named John J. Mackey, who is a well-known promoter of prize fights. Mackey is charged with promoting a prize fight between a Negro and a white man. The fight is to take place in Norfolk on Monday night. The Commonwealth's attorney is bringing the promoter before the grand jury to determine if there is sufficient evidence to charge the promoter with promoting a prize fight. The fight is being promoted by a man named John J. Mackey, who is a well-known promoter of prize fights. Mackey is charged with promoting a prize fight between a Negro and a white man. The fight is to take place in Norfolk on Monday night. The Commonwealth's attorney is bringing the promoter before the grand jury to determine if there is sufficient evidence to charge the promoter with promoting a prize fight.

North Carolina.

The Raleigh dispatch says a fairly good business day was had in Raleigh. The day was a fair one, and the business was good. The Raleigh dispatch says a fairly good business day was had in Raleigh. The day was a fair one, and the business was good. The Raleigh dispatch says a fairly good business day was had in Raleigh. The day was a fair one, and the business was good.

General.

Death of General James Longstreet at Georgia Home of Gen. Longstreet. The death of General James Longstreet, a prominent Confederate general, is announced. He died at his home in Georgia. General Longstreet was a brave and able leader, and his death is a great loss to the Confederate cause. He was born in 1821 and died in 1904. He was a member of the Confederate army, and fought in many battles. He was a brave and able leader, and his death is a great loss to the Confederate cause.

ALEXANDRIA CONTEST.

Mr. Johnston Withdraws His Suit Against Mackey.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILLIAMSBURG, VA., Jan. 2.—The contest for the position of Sheriff of Alexandria County, which has been going on for some time, has been settled. Mr. Johnston has withdrawn his suit against Mackey. The contest was between Mr. Johnston and Mackey for the position of Sheriff of Alexandria County. Mr. Johnston had filed a suit against Mackey, but he has now withdrawn it. The contest is now over, and Mackey is the winner. The contest was a long and hard one, but it has now been settled. Mr. Johnston has withdrawn his suit against Mackey, and Mackey is the winner. The contest was between Mr. Johnston and Mackey for the position of Sheriff of Alexandria County. Mr. Johnston had filed a suit against Mackey, but he has now withdrawn it. The contest is now over, and Mackey is the winner.

TO RAISE TACCO IN OLD IRELAND

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BOSTON, MASS., Jan. 2.—Among the passengers sailing on the Republic for the Mediterranean to-day was Sir Horace Plunkett, Commissioner of Agriculture of Ireland, who is making the trip to Naples for the pleasure of the voyage. Sir Horace is a well-known Irishman, and he is going to Ireland to raise tobacco. He is a member of the Irish Parliament, and he is going to Ireland to raise tobacco. He is a well-known Irishman, and he is going to Ireland to raise tobacco. He is a member of the Irish Parliament, and he is going to Ireland to raise tobacco.

SHOT BECAUSE SHE WOULD NOT DANCE

The Girl's Drunken Slayer May be the Subject of a Lynching.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., January 2.—Miss Mary Martin, shot at a dance last night near Mayodan, Rockingham county, died today. John Gaus, deeply enamored and drinking, asked for a dance. The lady declined, and without warning he pulled out a pistol and shot her. The girl was killed. The case is now being investigated by the local authorities. The girl was a young woman, and she was killed by a man who was drunk. The case is now being investigated by the local authorities. The girl was a young woman, and she was killed by a man who was drunk.

TREASURY IS WITHOUT ANY MONEY

Great Complication Over Henrico Treasurership.

BRAUER HAS BONDS AND FUNDS AS WELL

Mr. Todd Had to Make Personal Arrangement to Pay Teachers.

RETIRING OFFICER LEFT NOTHING IN THE OFFICE

All the County Tax Books and Records Removed Along With Tax Bills and Thousands of Dollars—The Commonwealth's Attorney Is Called Upon.

During yesterday the treasurership muddle, which has been daily assuming a position of paramount importance in the county, reached its most intricate and complete stage. A treasury sweep bare of funds, and of other usual paraphernalia in the way of books, records, etc., all of which have been removed by the outgoing officer, compels a curious spectacle, and Walter J. Todd, newly elected by the people, is, momentarily, at least, running the affairs of the Commonwealth out of his own pocket. Thousands of dollars in money and as much more in the way of uncollected tax bills cannot be touched, because Mr. Brauer holds them in his custody, claiming a legal right for the same. The new treasurer receives absolutely no attention, and Mr. Todd is beginning to prepare for some drastic movement if it becomes necessary.

A Complex Situation.

Meanwhile, a perplexed public is seeking to understand the show. Taxpayers leave the courthouse with the money still in their pockets, because there is nobody to receive it; citizens, including school teachers, present warrants against the county, and the county cannot pay because the treasury is empty; while Mr. Brauer holds the funds. Only the promptitude of the new treasurer, who went down in his own pocket, or at least made some personal arrangement yesterday, prevented these warrants from being cashed. The court is beginning to loom up in the distance. The treasurer is responsible to the supervisors and these latter will meet on Tuesday and take some action. One of the school boards has already expressed itself. The Commonwealth's attorney has been called upon by both sides, and will render a decision as soon as he can look into the law. If this does not settle the matter the whole business will be thrown into court.

Too Everything Away.

At midnight of the 31st of December, the day before Mr. Todd was to take the oath of office, Mr. Brauer had vacated the treasurership office, but he had carried the bulk of what was movable in it along with him. Friday was a holiday, and yesterday Mr. Todd took possession. The place was bare. A most vigorous search produced not a cent of money. One or two desks not a cent removed. Where there had on the day before been scores of tax books and other county records there were now none. Not a scrap of blank paper even could be found. The link had been removed from the wheels. Mr. Todd took possession. He sat in a revolving chair, and by turns gazed at the four walls around him. In the next office—that of the commissioner of the revenue—Mr. Brauer had entrenched himself. The two offices communicated by means of a door on the inside. The hall door of the commissioner's office has not been opened for months. Visitors reached the treasurership office passing through the door of the commissioner's office. But now the outer door has been opened and the wire one closed. Mr. Brauer has backed his desk against the latter and communication between him and the office of Mr. Todd is thus shut off.

Here are all of the books, accounts, etc., as well as the money on which the county is to be run. Mr. Brauer holds them and refuses to deliver the property up. Mr. Todd has nothing, and he is expected to run the affairs of the county. Yesterday the school teachers of Henrico and District, some of whom depend on the county for their bread, presented their bills. The treasury of Henrico was empty. Rather than put the young ladies to inconvenience or to force them to sell the county paper for cash, Mr. Todd made personal arrangements and gave them the money himself. During the day the new treasurer used about $800 in this way. When the supervisors meet on Tuesday there will be another big batch of bills. So far as the teachers are concerned, Mr. Brauer offered to let the Brookland board have the money if the warrants were issued in his name. But the board declined to do this. The board is the property of the county, and the school board of the county, if it sees fit, can take the entire fund out of the office, put it in bank, and use it to itself. If Mr. Brauer refuses to give this money up the board can and will proceed against him at once. A number of people who wish to pay their taxes were sent away because Mr. Todd is not in possession of the bills. Mr. Todd advised the people not to pay Mr. Brauer.

SHOT BECAUSE SHE WOULD NOT DANCE

The Girl's Drunken Slayer May be the Subject of a Lynching.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., January 2.—Miss Mary Martin, shot at a dance last night near Mayodan, Rockingham county, died today. John Gaus, deeply enamored and drinking, asked for a dance. The lady declined, and without warning he pulled out a pistol and shot her. The girl was killed. The case is now being investigated by the local authorities. The girl was a young woman, and she was killed by a man who was drunk. The case is now being investigated by the local authorities. The girl was a young woman, and she was killed by a man who was drunk.

Made Formal Demand.

A formal demand made by Mr. Todd upon Mr. Brauer was unnoticed. The desks in the office and all of the books are the property of the county, and while the new treasurer might order new ones, he must have the old records to go with them. Mr. Todd sent Mr. Brauer a letter, in which he demanded the property. He said under section 82 of the Code of Virginia, which reads as follows: "Treasurer's annual settlement with supervisors, to deliver books, etc., to successor. He shall receive the county levy in the manner prescribed for the receipt of the State revenue, and shall at the July meeting of the Board of Supervisors, or within sixty days thereafter, settle with said supervisors his account for that year, and out of the balance shown to be in his hands upon said settlement, he shall at once pay to the supervisors the levy for that year, not previously paid, in the order of their presentation, as provided by section 82, and when his term of office expires, or if he dies, resigns, or is removed from office, he, upon the expiration of his term of office, shall deliver to the successors of the Board of Supervisors, or to his personal representative upon his death, all the records and books belonging to the county, and the fund to which the same belong, and deliver to his successors all the books and papers belonging to his office and all money belonging to the county." Up to this time Mr. Brauer has not complied with the demand. He has legal authority for the position he takes. He will keep all books, showing taxable property and persons against whom he has bills. He will not turn the county money over to Mr. Todd until ordered to do so by the supervisors, because, he says, the books were late in coming in, and that the extension of his term in January is further complicated matters. Calls Up Commonwealth's Attorney.

Commonwealth's Attorney Wendenburg has been called upon. One of the supervisors, who thinks Mr. Brauer is overstepping the bounds, had a talk with him. The new treasurer has also addressed a letter to him. In the letter, in effect, for a decision on the following points:

What rights have the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer? What are the rights of the new treasurer to the books and property of the office? What are the rights of the old treasurer?

HUNDRED THOUSAND FOR HUSBAND

Mrs. Delang Brings Suit Against Countess.

LATTER'S FRIENDS BRING CHARGES.

Mrs. Delang Alleges Her Husband's Affections Have Been Alienated by Pretty Widow.

LEFT VIRGINIA HOME IN AUGUST

Mrs. Delang Alleges That Much of Her Husband's Time Since Then Has Been Spent in the Company of the Countess Esterhazy.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 2.—The Countess Esterhazy, widow of the late Count Maximilian Esterhazy, who was at one time secretary of the Austrian embassy in Washington, is the defendant in a damage suit for $100,000 brought by Mrs. Laura M. Delang, who charges that the Countess alienated her husband's affections. The papers were served on the Countess here to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Delang have divided their time between homes in New York and Warrenton, Fauquier county, Va. Mrs. Delang says her husband left their home in Virginia on August 3d, and has since absented himself. She charges that much of the time has been spent by Mr. Delang in the company of the Countess Esterhazy in Washington.

Friends of the Countess said to-night that Mr. Delang had been received by her as a friend, and that she had no knowledge of the charges. Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

Mr. Delang is a member of an old Swiss family, and is said to be without means. The Countess Esterhazy is the daughter of William Carroll, of Washington, a cousin of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Countess has been twice married, her first husband having been General Griffin. She has many friends in the city, and is said to be a favorite of the present Emperor. She has an independent fortune.

OLD CONFEDERATE WAR HORSE GOES TO HIS LAST REWARD

GENERAL LONGSTREET.

MRS. LONGSTREET.

Death at Georgia Home of Gen. Longstreet.

WAS A VETERAN OF TWO WARS

End Due to an Acute Attack of Pneumonia of Short Duration.

HIS HEALTH GOOD UNTIL WEDNESDAY

General Longstreet Was Last Surviving Lieutenant-General of the Confederacy, With the Exception of General Gordon—Sketch of His Distinguished Career.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GAINESVILLE, GA., Jan. 2.—General James Longstreet, the "War Horse of the Confederacy," died suddenly at his home here about 6 o'clock to-night. A few days ago he contracted a cold, which developed into pneumonia. His sudden end was a great surprise to his family, as only yesterday he was discussing improvements to be made on his farm near the city, and talked as though he had every hope of life for some time yet. At the time of his death his wife, who was a Miss Ellen Dorch, his only daughter, Mrs. J. Estlin Welch, and his sons, John G. and F. Randolph Longstreet, were with him.

Gush of Blood. The General raised on his bed, and a great gush of blood came from his mouth, and through the old wound which he received at the hands of his own men through mistake at the battle of the Wilderness, and he fell back, lapsing into unconsciousness.

General Longstreet returned to his home here two weeks ago from Chicago, where he went for treatment for cancer of the eye. The affected member was treated with X-rays, and his general condition seemed to be better than for years.

General Longstreet was first married to a daughter of General John Garland, United States army. She died fifteen years ago. General Longstreet survived the union, namely: John G. R. Lee, James and Randolph Longstreet, and only daughter, Mrs. J. Estlin Welch. General Longstreet was a resident of Washington, D. C., and a member of the Confederate Congress. He was a member of the Confederate army, and served in the Thirteenth Cavalry, United States army, now on service in the Philippines, were the only children not with the General at the time of his death.

General Longstreet also has two sisters living at Mueon, Miss. Mrs. Rebecca Ames and Mrs. Marjorie Dismukes. In 1897 General Longstreet was married to Miss Ellen Dorch, former assistant secretary of the United States army, now on service in the Philippines, were the only children not with the General at the time of his death.

Sketch of His Life. In his later years General Longstreet greatly resembled Emperor William I. of Germany. His figure, though somewhat stooped, was still imposing, his face was high and broad, his hair was white and flowing. He rode horseback until within a few years of his death, and he was always a magnificent figure in the saddle. Because he was so large and heavy he always had a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.

He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have. He was engaged in thirty-two pitched battles known and noted in history, besides many skirmishes, and he was a very much to hear, and he was always a swinging seat, as most heavy men have.